CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES AND SUGGESTED TOPICS

The global economic, political and business landscapes have changed substantially in recent times. The new challenges and global asymmetries need to be addressed rigorously and extensively. The conference aims to bring together scholars and practitioners from around the world to present and discuss their new research results, share their ideas and concerns, and provide new policy recommendations.

TOPICS

We welcome submissions in Economic, Financial and Business areas, (earlier submission is highly encouraged).

The main topics of the conference include, but are not limited to:

- banking, finance, and financial frictions
- economic integration and currency unions
- national debt, global imbalances and sustainability
- international trade, industrial organization and emerging markets
- income distribution, government policies and regulation
- production and outsourcing
- pricing in commodity and energy markets
- theoretical and applied macroeconomics
- institutions, development and growth
- theoretical and applied econometrics
- field studies in economics, business and management

(e.g., in the areas of health, demographics, FDI, bioeconomics, business competencies)
