

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

KONRAD-ADENAUER-STIFTUNG GREECE / CYPRUS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Greece and Cyprus Office of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) is offering scholarships for postgraduate studies and vocational training (research stays, scientific activities, traineeships) programmes in Greece. The scholarships are awarded to candidates of exceptional academic achievement and outstanding social / political engagement.

Who can apply?

Candidates of Greek nationality who wish to pursue (or are already enrolled in) postgraduate programmes at a Greek public university, or execute a non-paid activity of scientific nature (vocational training, traineeship, research stay etc.) at a scientific/research organisation, think-tank, institute of higher education or university.

Amount of the scholarship?

300 EUR for studies/scientific activity in Athens – Thessaloniki, 250 EUR for the rest of Greece

How to apply?

Via sending an application and all the necessary documents mentioned in the Questionnaire.

Eligibility criteria?

- Envisaged studies in: Humanities, Law, Economics, Journalism (PhD and undergraduate studies are excluded from the scholarship programme)
- Strong motivation, engagement, high academic merit, multifaceted extracurricular activities

Application until?

Sunday 24 March 2019 via mail to info.athen@kas.de

More information: www.kas.de/web/griechenland

Contact Person

Eleftherios Petropoulos, Research Associate / Project Manager, KAS Greece and Cyprus Office

Tel: 2107247126,

Email: eleftherios.petropoulos@kas.de